WASHINGTON CRITIC COMP'Y

HALLET KILBOURN, President.

Office, No. 941 D Street Northwest.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

TERMS:

THE WASHINGTON CRITIC, Washington, D. C.

BICHARD H. SYLVESTER ..... Editor WASHINGTON, JULY 21, 1888.

THE CONFIRMATION of Mr. Fuller as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States is an act of unduly delayed justice and unreasonablytardy courtesy on the part of the Senate. It was as well known when the nomination was first sent in that now that the confirmation has been made. The President had evidence enough in his possession at the outset to warrant the appointment, and no sooner was the appointment made than it was cordially indorsed in the highest professional and other circles of Illinois, without regard to party. There was no question raised as to the propriety of the appointment, excepting among those who knew nothing of the appointee, or who had partisan motives in opposing him. The mistake of the Senate Judiciary Committee was two-fold, first in delaying action and finally in non-action. There was no excuse for reporting the nomination without recommendation. It was anything but brave, just, or magnanimous. With the result at last, however, the country will be satisfied. Mr. Fuller has received a support in the Senate that is, under the circumstances, exceedingly complimentary, and we have every reason to believe that his record will be such as to show that Senators would have done the fairer thing in making his confirmation unanimous.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL project finds great favor among the people. As fast as they come to understand the peculiar advantages offered by the Nicaragua route for an interoceanic waterway, the comparative cheapness of its construction, and the incalculable value to American commerce which it cannot fail to be, the enterprise is unhesitatingly and unqualifiedly indorsed. The Cleveland Leader, in a recent article upon the subject of this canal, says:

The latest surveys indicate that its pro pects are very bright. The favorable conclusions reached by former engineering parties are confirmed and made even more flattering by the work of the expedition sent out last fall. There is good reason to believe that the whole canal can be completed for less than half the lowest sum estimated by any reasonable person as required for finish-ing the French blunder, even in the modified form, with looks, which Count de Lesseps has been forced to adopt. It is a vastly bet-ter project and ought to succeed.

THE NEW YORK Morning Journal keeps up a heavy fire on the management of the Ward's Island Insane Asylum, which it denominates a "Nest of Horrors' for about eighteen hundred pauper lunatics. It looks like a hopeless case, but if Mayor Hewitt can be induced to take a hand in the matter we are quite sure that some-thing can be done to relieve what seems to be a truly shocking situa-

FOR THE SAKE OF Democratic harmony, General Spinola and Mr. Kilgore of Texas ought to go out to Bladensburg and throw watermelon rinds at each other.

THETHREE Chicago Anarchists, now under arrest, spell their names C-h-le-b-o-w-a, C-h-a-p-e-k and H-r-o-n-e-k There is no way of pronouncing them with anything resembling an American accent. There is a suggestion of outlandish Bohemianism in them that would bode no good to an unarmed man meeting the men in a dark alley It strikes us that the United States is not a proper refuge for fugitive patriots of this character.

THE TESTIMONY before the naval court, sitting at Annapolis, shows that The hazing cadets did force the hazed cadets to stand on their heads, chew toilet paper, eat candles and do a variety of other undignified things, but, as far as we are able to judge, we must confess that a cadet who hadn' the nerve to smash in the top lights of a hazer, even at the risk of losing his own life, which was scarcely prob able, deserved to get about all that was served up to him. A cadet goes to Annapolis to learn how to fight and if he lacks courage to defend himself, he should be dropped from the lists as an incapable

IT IS GENERALLY considered that Mrs. Hammersley took a great risk in marrying the Duke of Marlborough. But what is to be thought of the Austrian archduchess, who is credited with the intention of wedding King Milan of Servia immediately upon hi divorce from Queen Natalle, The latter might give a few points on this subject that would prove of value even to an ambitious archduchess.

THE SEVENTY-FIRST New York Regiment and the First Virginia will visit Bull Run to-morrow to fight their battles o'er again. The engagement will doubtless prove a spirited

THAT A RAILWAY BRIDGE WIll eventually span the Hudson at New York, as proposed by the present projectors or upon other plans yet to be deter nained, is only a question of time. The designs of Mr. Lindenthall, the engineer of the company now seeking incorporation by Congress, are pronounced by other engineers to be both admirable and practicable; and the necessity of such a crossing for the accommodation of the 900 railway trains now arriving daily on the Jersey side of the river is of course admitted. The bridge will "come high" as to cost, but the investment cannot fall to be a profitable one, and the whole country, especially outside of New England, will welcome the structure that gives it unimpoded access to the metropolis, as the greatest benefaction of this commercial age.

WE CONGRATULATE YOU, Mr. Mills -162 to 149.

REPRESENTATIVE CHEADLE of Inliana is feeling sore to-day. He has been sitting up of nights fighting an increase of pension for Mrs. Louise Paul, widow of General Gabriel Paul, one of the most deserving cases on the roll, but last night he was otherwise engaged for a few minutes, and when he returned to the floor the bill had passed. He was wildly indignant, but as he was the only Member who it would be confirmed as it is known | had opposed the bill, the sympathy he received was not calculated to make him feel any happier. Mr. Cheadle's hobby is to fight increased pensions for officers' widows, and he is a Republican.

Is MR, CLEVELAND waiting for Mr. Harrison to write his letter of acceptance before he turns to, or is Mr. Harrison waiting on Mr. Cleveland

IT IS REPORTED THAT General Harrison once said: "A cheap coat means a cheap man in it." It is a good deal like the calumny circulated some years ago about Henry Ward Beecher to the effect that he considered a dollar a day as much as a workingman ought to get. At least we are strongly inclined to think so. We do not believe that General Harrison ever made the observation imputed to him about the cheap coat. There are a great many aristocrats in this country who wear fifteen-dollar saits.

DEAR EDMUNDS: It's all right, You did the best you knew how. It was p. d. bad, but your early education was neglected and you couldn't help it. Vermont is so much smaller than Chicago that if we had it in our town we would make a park of it, and mark it with a tag to prevent its being lost in the rush. Drop into the Supreme Court room some day and see me. You will find me in the middle seat on the bench. Ta, ta.

Yours, M. W. FULLER, C. J. As a CAMPAIGN LEADER, Senator Quay takes the cakes; but whether he can take the Democratic party or not remains to be seen.
